About me

Hi! I'm Stef, a traveler from Germany with a passion for travel, food, and photography.

During my studies, I worked in the Canary Islands and in Argentina and I studied for two semesters in the UK. After I finished, I decided that I didn't want to work for the rest of my life. I was 21 and couldn't imagine sitting in an office for the next 40 years or more. So, I decided to go to Australia on 05 a working vacation visa. First, I worked for six months in Germany because I needed to save some money. I went to Sydney at the end of 2011. I spent Christmas on St. Kilda Beach in Melbourne, I worked in a restaurant, and then I traveled all over Australia and New Zealand.

After coming back, I got a job as a project assistant in an IT
10 company – an office job. I was happy to have a routine again, but I spent all my vacations traveling – to Thailand, Istanbul, Portugal, Indonesia, Chile, Belize, and Morocco.

Some months passed, but finally I realized what I wanted to do with my life, at least for now. Having experiences is 15 very important to me – more important than working in an office all week to pay for an apartment that I hardly ever spend time in, and to buy things I don't really need. Three months ago, I left my job. I decided to work in different
20 jobs, sometimes here, sometimes abroad, sometimes as a volunteer, sometimes for money. I have a lot of dreams and I want to make them come true.
