The screenshot shows the City University website. At the top, there is a search bar and the text 'CITY UNIVERSITY'. Below this is a navigation menu with links: 'Home', 'About CU', 'Programmes', and 'Contact us'. The main content area contains a paragraph about the university's location and courses, followed by a section titled 'The following classes are offered on our summer courses:' which lists five courses: 'British Art and Architecture', 'Creative Writing in London', 'Live Theatre', 'Museums and Galleries', and 'Shakespeare's London'. At the bottom of the screenshot, there is a paragraph about scholarships.

City University is based in the heart of the capital, close to the historic City of London. We run a range of undergraduate and postgraduate courses as well as eight-week summer courses. We welcome applicants whose first language is not English, but you will need a good level of both spoken and written English.

The following classes are offered on our summer courses:

- British Art and Architecture
- Creative Writing in London
- Live Theatre
- Museums and Galleries
- Shakespeare's London

We are able to offer a limited number of scholarships to students who demonstrate a special interest in any of the class topics. Please send a letter of application to the Admissions Tutor at the address given.

Decide which of the summer course classes you would like to join, and write a letter of application for a scholarship. Include information to convince the Admissions Tutor that you are an ideal candidate for the scholarship. Write between 100 and 150 words. Make sure you use appropriate language from 1–4.
