

Willow's songbook

song: August by Taylor Swift

Click here
to listen to the song!

1 Complete with the missing word.

Salt ____, and the rust on your door
I never needed ____ more
Whispers of "Are you ____?"
"Never have I ever ____"

2 Put the chorus in order.

____ 'Cause you were never mine
____ August sipped away like a bottle of wine
____ And I can see us twisted in bedsheets
____ August slipped away into a moment in time
____ But I can see us lost in the memory
____ 'Cause it was never mine

3 Choose the right word.

Your eyes/back beneath the sun
Wishin' I could write my name/tale on it
Will you call when you're back at tool/school?
I remember/surrender thinkin' I had you

Chorus

4 Match the halves.

Back when we were still changin'
Wanting was enough
To live for the hope of it all
And say, "Meet me behind the mall"
'Cause you weren't mine to lose

For me, it was enough
You weren't mine to lose, no
So much for summer love and saying "us"
for the better
Cancel plans just in case you'd call

Chorus

But do you remember?
Remember when I pulled up and said, "Get in the car"
And then canceled my plans just in case you'd call?
Back when I was livin' for the hope of it all, for the hope of it all