

Exercise: Forming Questions about Clothes

Part 1: Yes/No Questions

Rewrite the sentences below as yes/no questions using "do" or "does".

1. You need a new shirt.
 - Question: Do you need a new shirt?
2. She wants a pair of jeans.
 - Question: Does she want a pair of jeans?
3. They like the red dress.
 - Question: Do they like the red dress?
4. He has a blue jacket.
 - Question: Does he have a blue jacket?
5. We need some new shoes.
 - Question: Do we need some new shoes?

Part 2: Information Questions

Rewrite the statements below as information questions using "do" or "does" and the question words (what, which, why, when, where, who).

1. You need a new shirt.
 - Question: What do you need?
2. She wants a pair of jeans.
 - Question: What does she want?
3. They like the red dress.
 - Question: Which dress do they like?
4. He has a blue jacket.
 - Question: What color jacket does he have?
5. We need some new shoes.
 - Question: What do we need?

Part 3: Create Your Own Questions

Now, create your own yes/no and information questions about clothes using the verbs need, want, like, and have.

1. (Yes/No Question)
 - Statement: I need a warm sweater.
 - Question:
 - Why do you want to buy a new jacket?
2. (Information Question)
 - Statement: She likes the black boots.
 - Question: What color shoes does she like?

3. (Yes/No Question)

- Statement: They have a lot of scarves.
- Question: ____ Do they have a lot of scarves _____?

4. (Information Question)

- Statement: He wants a new belt.
- Question: ____ What does he want _____?

Part 1: Yes/No Questions

Rewrite the sentences below as yes/no questions using "do" or "does".

1. You need a new shirt.
 - Question: Do you need a new shirt?
2. She wants a pair of jeans.
 - Question: Does she want a pair of jeans?
3. They like the red dress.
 - Question: Do they like the red dress?
4. He has a blue jacket.
 - Question: Does he have a blue jacket?
5. We need some new shoes.
 - Question: Do we need some new shoes?

Part 2: Information Questions

Rewrite the statements below as information questions using "do" or "does" and the question words (what, which, why, when, where, who).

1. You need a new shirt.
 - Question: What do you need?
2. She wants a pair of jeans.
 - Question: What does she want?
3. They like the red dress.
 - Question: Which dress do they like?
4. He has a blue jacket.
 - Question: What color jacket does he have?
5. We need some new shoes.
 - Question: What do we need?

Part 3: Create Your Own Questions

Now, create your own yes/no and information questions about clothes using the verbs need, want, like, and have.

1. (Yes/No Question)

- Statement: I need a warm sweater.

- Question: _____ Do you need a sweater _____?
- 2. (Yes/No Question)
 - Statement: They have a lot of scarves.
 - Question: _____ Do they have a scarf _____?

Exercise: Forming Questions with Why, What, Which, and One/Ones

Part 1: Complete the Questions

Complete the questions using "why," "what," "which," "one," or "ones."

1. ____ Why ____ do you want to buy a new jacket?
2. ____ What ____ color shoes do you need?
3. ____ Which ____ dress do you like, the red one or the blue one?
4. ____ What ____ do you have in your shopping bag?
5. ____ Which ____ do you prefer, the striped shirt or the plain one?
6. ____ Why ____ did you choose the black boots?
7. ____ Which ____ jeans are more comfortable, the skinny ones or the regular ones?
8. ____ What ____ accessories do you want to wear with your outfit?
9. ____ Which ____ of these hats is your favorite?
10. ____ Why ____ does he need a new suit?