

2 Delicious!

Reading

reading for detail; matching people to texts

- 1 Read the Exam Reminder. How many of the eight texts will not be used to complete the task?

- 2 Read and complete the Exam Task.

Exam TASK

Matching people to texts

The five people below want to do a cooking course in another country. Read the descriptions of eight possible courses and decide which would be the best course for each person.

- 1  Sabine likes simple food. She doesn't like fish or vegetables much, but loves meat and wants to barbecue for friends at weekends.
- 2  Kiren often cooks for family and friends. He wants to stay in a city and learn traditional home cooking. He's only got a few days free to do a course.
- 3  Gina loves nature and quiet places. She's really keen on desserts and wants to go somewhere with her two boys, aged 8 and 10.
- 4  Alessia wants to see new places, especially outside Europe, and learn about other cultures. She prefers cooking vegetables to meat, but doesn't like spicy food or cakes.
- 5  Youssef hasn't got any cooking experience. He loves simple, inexpensive food. He loves trying original food. He also likes spending his free time by the sea.

Exam REMINDER

Reading for detail

- You need to match five people to the text that fits the person best from eight choices.
- Start by reading about the five people. Underline the key points for each person.
- Read all the texts. Take one text and see if the text matches ALL the key points that you underlined for the first person. If not, go to the next text and see if it matches all the points for that person.
- Go back and check all your answers again.

A Cook dinner with Nonna

Have you ever wanted to cook like Grandma? This is a three-day course for experienced cooks who want to learn real Italian cooking in the heart of Rome. Two local grandmothers, Nonna Bruna and Nonna Antonella will show you how to cook a full Italian meal. From starters to your own pasta, delicious Roman meat dishes and homemade desserts, the grandmothers have all the answers.

B Lebanese cooking class with a local family

This is a great experience especially if you want to try great food and learn the local way of life. You will stay and eat with Tania and her family in Beirut for two weeks. She'll show you how to make dishes like hummus, soups, beans and rice, baked chicken with potatoes as well as traditional snacks.

C Silom Thai Cooking School in Bangkok

Here, you can learn how to make tasty Thai dishes. We use a lot of hot spices in our food and you can make great fried rice dishes with meat and fish. We will also teach you to prepare sweet and sour vegetable dishes and our famous Thai green curry.

D Baking and pastry classes on a Swedish farm

Sweden is famous for its cakes and here, in a small Swedish village, you can learn how to bake them. This course is great for people with young children. They can play or help on the farm while you learn to make a sweet tiger cake for them for afternoon tea.

E Traditional cooking course in Buenos Aires

Juan and Marina will show you how to cook beef and lamb the traditional Argentinian way. Here we like to keep things simple, so no spices or sauces. But we'll teach you how to grill the right way and how to make a real wood fire.

0 Unit 2 Delicious!

Vocabulary 1

taste; cooking verbs; choosing the correct option; multiple-choice cloze

- 1 Choose the correct option to complete the sentences.

- 1 I love salty / sweet snacks, but my best friend prefers chocolate and cakes.
- 2 This yoghurt is a bit too sour / spicy for me.
- 3 I like bitter / spicy food and often put hot peppers on my pasta.
- 4 These grapes are so sour / sweet. They're lovely.
- 5 Please could you put some more sugar in this lemonade as it's too bitter / sweet.

- 2 Complete the sentences with these words.

bake barbecue boil fry grill roast

- 1 You need to _____ this cake in the oven for about 30 minutes.
- 2 First _____ some water and then put the pasta in.
- 3 Let's _____ everything outside.
- 4 Please _____ the eggs in a little oil.
- 5 I like to _____ fish rather than fry it. It's a healthier way to cook it.
- 6 I love it when we _____ a chicken in the oven for a family lunch.

- 3 Read the Exam Reminder and complete the Exam Task.

Exam REMINDER

Choosing the correct option

- You need to complete the gaps in a short text.
- Read the whole text before you begin.
- Look at each gap in turn. Read the text just before and after it.
- Think about a possible word to put in the gap.
- If it's a verb, think of the correct form. For example, do I need the past with -ed, or do I need the -ing form?
- Look at the four options and find the best word for the gap.
- Read the text again and check that all your answers make sense.

Exam TASK

Multiple-choice cloze

For each question, choose the correct answer.

In Britain, National Fish and Chip Day is on 2nd June. But where does this popular 1 _____ actually come from? Chips aren't a British invention after all. People started to 2 _____ potatoes in Belgium and France long before they did in Britain. They 3 _____ them when it was impossible to catch fish because of frozen lakes and rivers. Fried fish isn't a British invention either. It actually came from Spanish and Portuguese people living in the UK who didn't like the 4 _____ fish they were offered.

It was a businessman called John Lees who first started to serve fish and chips 5 _____ in 1863. Fish and chips are still a 6 _____ choice in England. In fact, there are more than 10,500 fish and chip shops across the country.

- 1 A dish B plate C eat D eating
- 2 A make B fry C barbecuing D cooking
- 3 A saw B making C do D ate
- 4 A sour B boiled C barbecue D sweet
- 5 A together B all C between D either
- 6 A taste B likely C popular D really

F Language and lunch in Montpellier

This course teaches you two things at the same time – you learn modern French cooking and how to speak French. Your chef will explain how to prepare delicious French dishes such as roasted chicken and vegetables. You can then eat and discuss the dishes with other students. The course is suitable for people with some experience of cooking.

G Katerina's Kouzina

You love tasty Greek food. You want to learn how to make it yourself, but you've never cooked before. No problem. Stay on the Greek island of Poros for two weeks and Katerina will teach you how to bake, roast and grill in the traditional way. She will also show you how to make modern, creative Greek dishes using local meat and freshly caught fish.

H Abbey Home Farm, England: Natural Kitchen cookery course

The course is perfect for vegetarians. We start by showing you how to make healthy green smoothies. Our top chef then teaches you how to make homemade bread, delicious salty snacks and an amazing bitter lemon cake. She will show you that natural dishes and ingredients are good for you and your family.

Unit 2 Delicious!

LIVEWORKSHEETS