Reading Passage:

This picture dictionary shows us many different places we can visit in a city. In the first image, we see a colorful amusement park with a ferris wheel, rollercoasters, and carnival games. Next, there is an apartment building with many floors and windows. The third image is of a large bookstore, full of shelves stocked with all kinds of books. The fourth picture depicts an art museum, where people can view interesting paintings and sculptures. The fifth image shows a cozy restaurant, where you might enjoy a delicious meal. Finally, the last picture is of a school classroom, with a teacher instructing students at their desks. All of these places offer unique experiences and activities for people to enjoy. Which one would you most want to visit?
