

Whose opinion do you agree with?

Alex (A): "In my eyes, the stereotype that all influencers are superficial and only care about appearances is quite unfair."

Jamie (J): "Personally, I think some influencers do perpetuate this stereotype, especially those who focus heavily on beauty and fashion."

Alex (A): "I'd like to point out that it is generally accepted that not all influencers fit this mold. Many use their platforms to promote important causes."

Jamie (J): "I see what you are getting at. However, there are many who focus more on their looks rather than substantive content."

Alex (A): "I suppose that's true to an extent. But definitely, there are influencers who make a positive impact by raising awareness."

Jamie (J): "I'd go along with that view to a point. While some influencers do engage in meaningful activities, the stereotype persists because of the highly visible ones who focus on aesthetics."

Alex (A): "We shouldn't judge all content creators by the actions of a few."

Jamie (J): "I see your point, but it is also true that the media often highlights these stereotypical influencers more prominently, which reinforces the stereotype."

Jamie (J): "You took the words right out of my mouth. It's important to recognize the diversity and not let stereotypes overshadow the positive contributions."
