Page 11- Ejs 6 & 8

1.

3 Choose the correct options to complete the conversation. Then listen and check.

A: Hello. What [1] are / is your name?
B: My name's Mike Burney.
A: [2] Are / Is you married?
B: Yes, [3] I'm / I am. My wife's name is Sally. She [4] aren't / isn't here today.
A: What's her job?
B: [5] She're / She's a teacher. [6] I'm / I's also a teacher.
A: Are you both from the United Kingdom?
B: No, we [7] isn't / aren't. I'm from the UK, but Sally is from Canada.
A: And how old [8] are / is you?
B: I'm thirty-six.
A: Is Sally also thirty-six?
B: No, she [9] am not / isn't, she's thirty-five.

2.

5 Complete this conversation at an airport with the correct form of be. Use a contracted form where possible. Then listen and check.

A: Good afternoon. [1] _____ you in New Zealand for work or a holiday?
B: For work. I [2] _____ a photographer
A: I see. What [3] _____ your address in Auckland?
B: We [4] _____ at 106a Eglinton Road.
A: We?
B: Yes, I'm with my wife and two children. They [5] _____ here.
A: [6] _____ your wife also a photographer?
B: Yes, she is, but she [7] _____ in Auckland for work. She [8] _____ here for a holiday.

LIVEWORKSHEETS