1. Dance is an art that generally involves things with the accompaniment of music.

2. An audience is a group of people who gather to listen to something (such as a concert) or watch something (such as a movie or play): the people who attend a performance.

3. Communicating means changing information to someone.

4. Movement is the act of moving your body or part of your body.

LIVEWORKSHEETS