RUGBY

The national sport of New Zealand is rugby. Boys and girls usually learn to play at school. There are 15 players on each team, and the uniform is a rugby shirt, shorts and long socks. Sometimes players wear a special hat to protect their ears. The national team of New Zealand is called the All Blacks and their uniform is… all black! At the start of every game there is a very interesting tradition- the team performs a traditional Maori dance and shout at the same time. It's very exciting! New Zealand has two national symbols, a bird called a kiwi, and a silver fern leaf.
