

In each of the sentences below, four parts are underlined and lettered A, B, C and D. One of these parts contain an error. Decide whether it is A, B, C or D.

1. Susan has learnt the ability to understand who people want by observing closely their behaviour.
A B C D

2. Remember that you need time in between workouts for your muscles to replenish its strength.
A B C D

3. Some signs of bad posture are round shoulders and an abnormally curved back, which may cause headaches.
A B C D

4. What thrills the campers most is the idea of sleeping out under the stars, and being closed to nature.
A B C D

5. A visit to some of the hospitals and nursing homes tends to refute the notice that they are well taken care of.
A B C D

6. Generally, first aid refers to the immediate care given to the victim of a suddenly illness or injury, often as an emergency measure.
A B C D

7. Camping is a favourite pastime for those who love nature and outdoor lives, especially when they are with their family.
A B C D

8. If you suspect that you have dengue fever, you should consult a doctor to define whether it is indeed dengue.
A B C D

9. When the forests are removed, the rivers that draining the land have higher flood peaks since water enters the river system faster.
A B C D

10. In hot weather, much elderly patients feel faint and disoriented because they are losing more fluids than they are taking in.
A B C D