

Episode 3

Suter goes _____ to Glasgow to visit his poor _____ and drunken, abusive father who tries to shame Suter for being _____ to play. Kinnaird and his _____ continue to mourn the loss of her pregnancy six months earlier. Once back in Lancashire, Suter meets with Cartwright, the Blackburn FC _____ and accepts his _____ but needs a few days to make it right with Jimmy, Walsh and the Darwen team. After _____ with the Etonians, teammates talk about the "epidemic" of working-class teams joining the Football Association. While the gentleman _____ the conditions of the working poor, Kinnaird comes to their defence. The Darwen team are out celebrating Jimmy's stag _____. Mr. Walsh tells Suter that he's _____ of his decision to bring Suter on to the team. Suter thanks him but doesn't _____ the deal with Blackburn. Clearly _____, Suter gets in a fight with another Blackburn player recently hired from Partick when he compares Suter to his drunken _____. The following day, at the match between Darwen and St Luke's, Suter arrives _____ and plays terribly. Darwen lose 3-0 and are out of the FA Cup. Suter storms off the _____. At home, Suter tells Doris about the _____ with Blackburn and says that he will tell Jimmy after the _____. Jimmy practises his _____ and Doris overhears. At the wedding, Jimmy tells all that he finally feels like he has a home in Darwen. As Suter begins his best man's _____, he is interrupted by a teammate who reads a Blackburn _____ about Suter joining the team, shocking everyone.

Word Bank :

ad	_____
deal	_____
drunk	_____
family	_____
father	_____
home	_____
late	_____
manager	_____
mention (v)	_____
offer	_____
party	_____
paid	_____
pitch	_____
practice	_____
proud	_____
scoff at (v)	_____
speech	_____
vows	_____
wedding	_____
wife	_____