

1. Circle the Correct Adjective: Read each sentence and circle the correct adjective.

1. The cookies are very _____. (Delicious / Horrible)
2. The soup is _____, so I need to drink water. (Salty / Sweet)
3. The curry is _____ and makes my mouth hot. (Spicy / Sweet)
4. The steak was _____ and tasted great. (Savory / Horrible)
5. The lemonade is _____ and refreshing. (Sweet / Spicy)
6. The leftovers tasted _____ and made me feel sick. (Horrible / Savory)

2. Match the Adjectives to the Food: Draw a line from each food item to the adjective that best describes it.

FOODS

Pizza

Chocolate Cake

French Fries

Chili

Rotten Meat

Soup

ADJECTIVES

Delicious

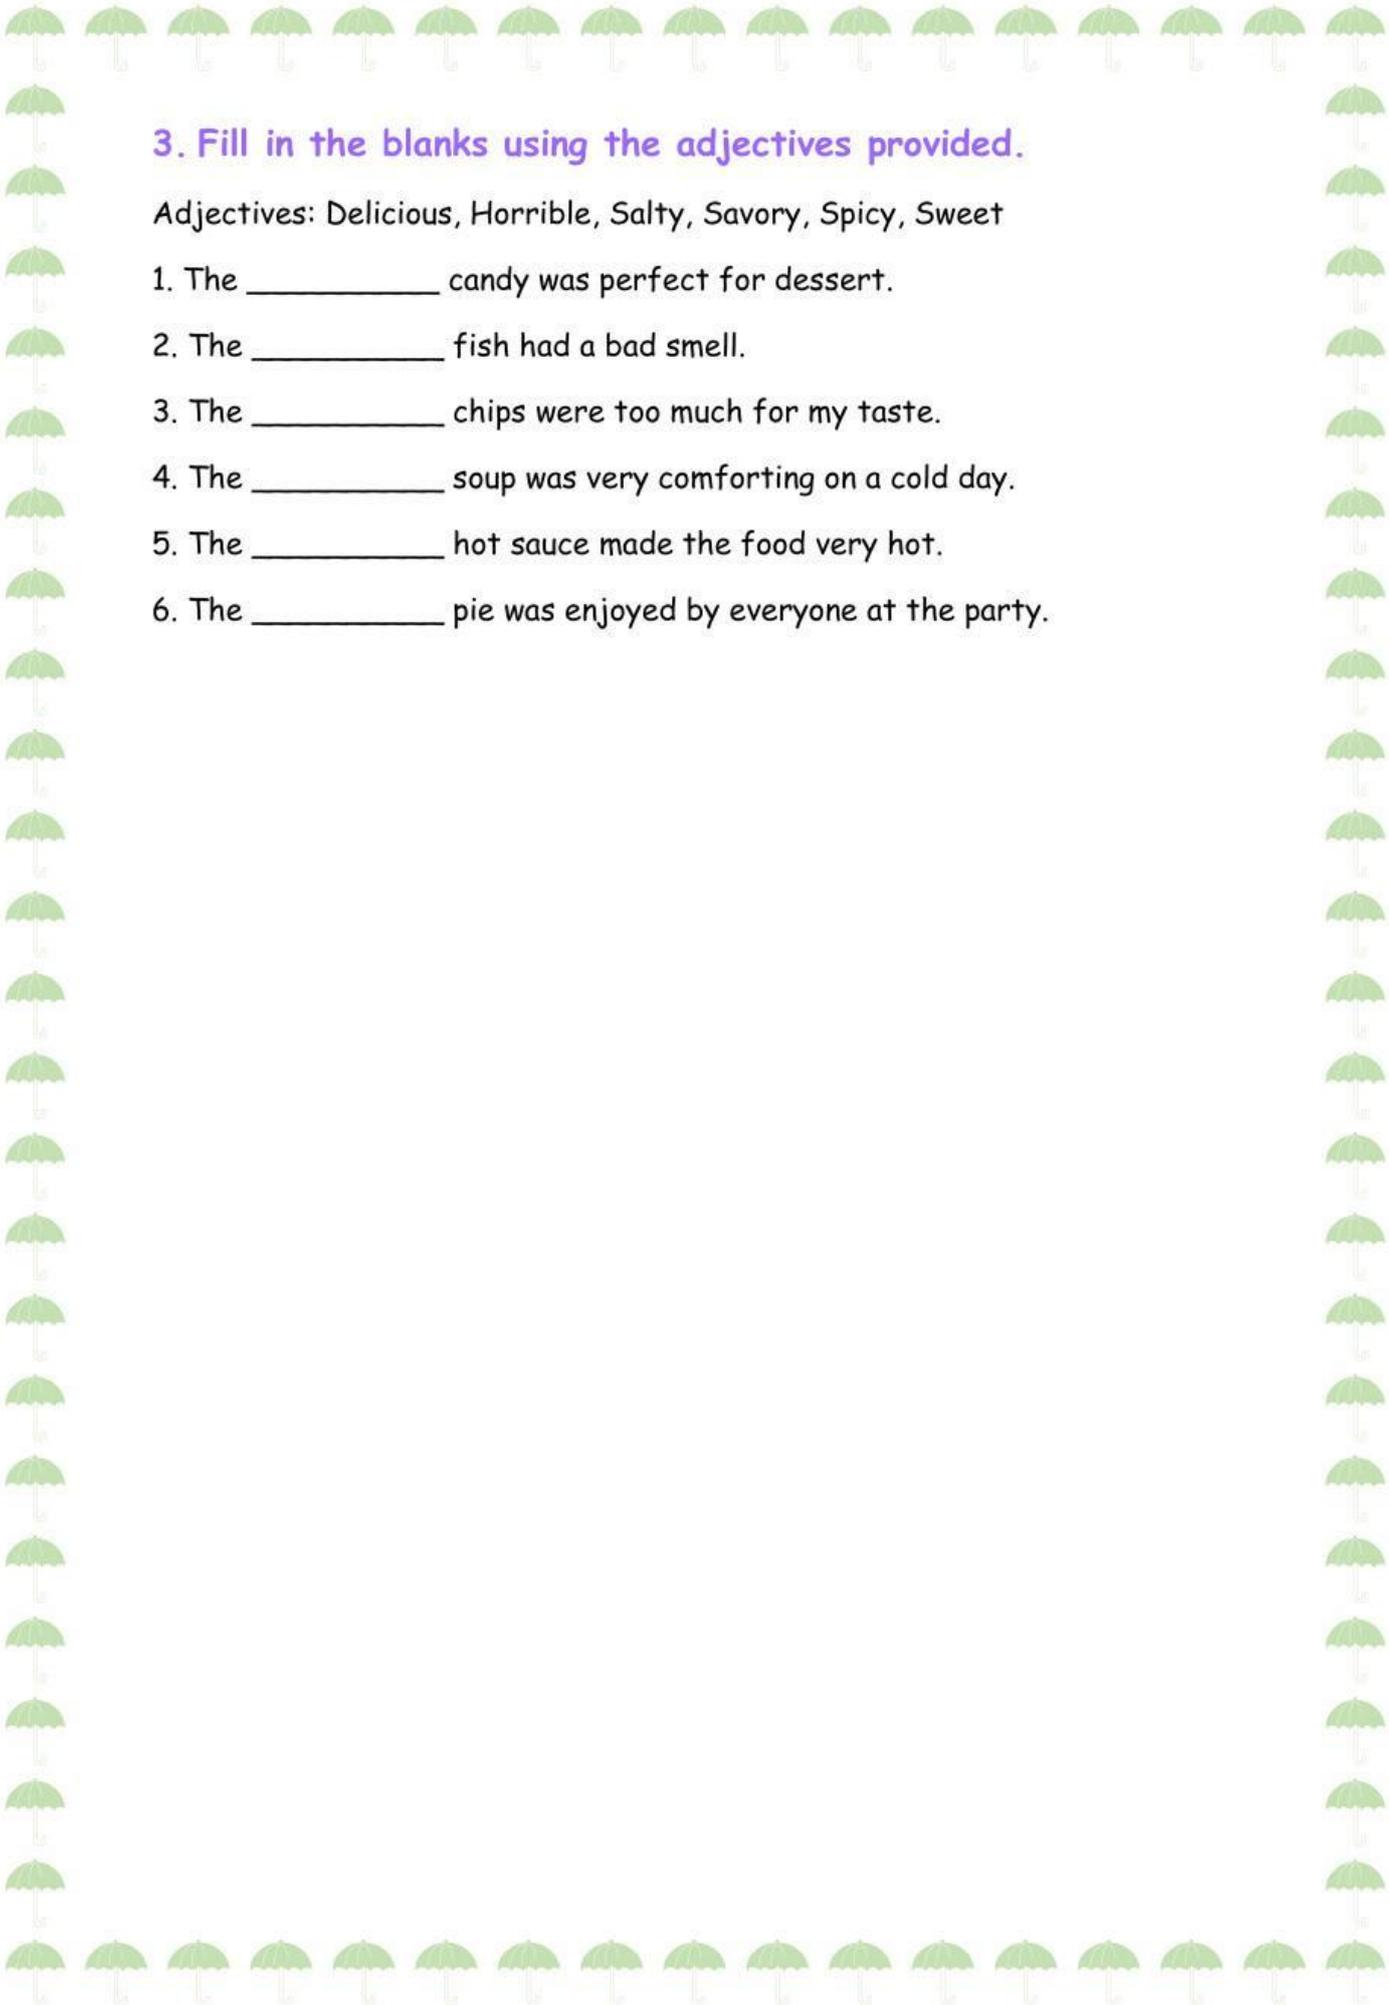

Horrible

Salty

Savory

Spicy

Sweet

3. Fill in the blanks using the adjectives provided.

Adjectives: Delicious, Horrible, Salty, Savory, Spicy, Sweet

1. The _____ candy was perfect for dessert.
2. The _____ fish had a bad smell.
3. The _____ chips were too much for my taste.
4. The _____ soup was very comforting on a cold day.
5. The _____ hot sauce made the food very hot.
6. The _____ pie was enjoyed by everyone at the party.