

Clause of Purpose

I. Choose the best answer to fill in the gap.

1. She hid the present _____ the children couldn't find it.
2. She phoned to his boy friend _____ have dinner.
3. John worked hard _____ lose his job.
4. She'll save money _____ buy the flat.
5. He locked the door _____ prevent someone broke in.
6. They hurried _____ they might miss the train.
7. I took an umbrella _____ get wet.
8. I left early _____ avoid getting stuck in the rush hour.
9. I took a cat to the vet _____ a vaccination.
10. He repainted the house _____ selling it.

II. Complete the short story with "so that/so as to/with a view to/lest".

One night in the last week of 1999, a man climbed through the window of a house in Scotland _____ steal a television. He wanted the TV _____ he could watch the celebrations all over the world on the night of 31st December, the end of the 20th century. He wore black clothes _____ he should be seen, and he put on dark sunglasses _____ cover his eyes. But he wasn't able to see very well at night with the sunglasses on. He suddenly realized that he was in the wrong house! He turned _____ climb out of the window again, but he walked into a door and knocked himself out. He watched the New Year's celebrations on a TV in prison, instead.

*lest=for fear that แปลว่า เพื่อที่จะไม่ , ด้วยเกรงว่า เมื่อใช้คำทั้ง 2 นี้จะต้องตามด้วย S+(might/may)

*with a view to doing something แปลว่า ด้วยความมุ่งมั่น ด้วยความตั้งใจ