Discovery Activity

Indirect questions

Direct questions	Indirect questions Can you tell me...? Do you know...? Do you have any idea...? I wonder... I'd like to know... I want to find out...
• Where are my keys?	• Can you tell me where my keys are?
• What did he buy?	• I wonder what he bought.
• Why do you dress like that?	• I'd like to know why you dress like that.
• What sports is he into?	• I'd like to know what sports he's into.
• Does he like broccoli?	• Do you know if he likes broccoli?

Complete the rules about the INDIRECT QUESTIONS.

In indirect questions, the first part is a polite statement or question.	True	False
In the second part of an indirect questions we use...	question word order	statement word order
In a yes/no indirect question use	What	if
For indirect questions that start with statements put	A period at the end.	A question mark at the end.
We use auxiliaries "do" or "did" in the second part of an indirect question	True	False
In an indirect question: where is the verb to be?

LIVEWORKSHEETS

LIVEWORKSHEETS