

'A Little Trauma Can Be Illuminating, and I'm Shining Like the Sun'

Song by $uicideboy$

_____ I been feelin' like I don't _____ who the fuck
I am (don't know who I am)
Tryna figure out where the stage _____ and I begin (where do I begin?)
'Til the bitter end, I proceed with a hollow heart
Cut my _____ and call it art, watch me as I come apart
Yeah, pull up Cullinan they wondering which _____ I play (who is that?)
I say what I _____ and what you can't afford to say (no-no-no-north)
Unless I'm hollering "Grey" ain't much else I gotta say (Grey, Grey, Grey)
I made the _____ and I made the way, and I made the wave and it's here to stay
Yeah, fakin' a smile while I'm flexin' (I can't go)
Alarm going off for my antidepressant (I can't go)
My girl is up _____ and bitchin' and stressin' (I can't go) About how I'm here but I'm lackin' in presence (I can't go)
I tell her, " _____, " but it's lackin' essence (I can't go)
And now I remember _____ who I am
But _____ me a pill this one for the win
I'm gone again
Gone

My _____ of vacation is _____
I wanna be left alone, gonna see how long I hold Until I end up _____ off temptations of selfannihilation (Self-annihilation)
I'm holdin' myself hostage by all of this emotional blockage
I can't fuckin' _____ it now, it's all coming out (it's all coming out)
A verbal kind of vomit, I wish I could gut it out (gut it out)
Take away my stomach, fucking rip it all apart
A hollow cage of calcium that used to hold my heart
I know I'm _____ to be _____ (Holding myself hostage by all of this emotional blockage)
I can feel it in my _____
And in my soul (Holding myself hostage by all of this emotional blockage)
