

> Unit 5

Entertainment

A Cinema and other forms of entertainment

1 Film vocabulary

Circle or underline the correct word from each pair in italics.

- a Who designed the dress / costumes for the screen adaptation of Macbeth?
- b I prefer to check the reviews / assessments of a film before deciding whether to see it.
- c A famous Hollywood actress has the starring role, while less well-known actors and actresses make up the rest of the cast / group.
- d There were so many different figures / characters in the film, I found it very confusing.
- e If the first scene / section in a film doesn't grab his attention, he quickly loses interest.
- f Comedy, tragedy and romance are examples of different styles / genres.
- g The film was so popular that the queue for tickets at the box office / movie desk reached the corner of the street.

2 More film vocabulary

Add the missing letters to the incomplete words in these sentences.

- a The thriller we went to see had many sp _ _ _ _ _ e _ _ _ _ _ s, including a very realistic earthquake
- b The best actors and actresses of the year receive O _ _ _ _ _ s in a prize-giving ceremony in Hollywood.
- c The film had many exotic s _ _ _ _ _ s, including a luxury cruise ship, a desert island and an Arabian palace.
- d In the school play, all the children, even the youngest, were given a r _ _ _ e to play.
- e The film kept me in terrible s _ _ _ _ _ se because I wasn't sure if the heroine would be rescued before the ship sank.
- f The cartoon did not have an important m _ _ _ _ _ ge about the meaning of life, but it made the children laugh a lot.