

LB Englisch II  PRIMUS SCHULE Schallmühle	++ A special day 6th graders How to write an invitation	Task 3 Step 3
-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----------------------------

Task 3

Read the information how to write an invitation carefully and do task a)

An invitation to a sleepover

a) Write an invitation for your partner like this. You can use colours and pictures on your invitation.

Write your partner's name.

Write the times here.
Example: From Saturday evening 6.00 pm to Sunday morning

What can you do together?
Examples: go swimming, watch a film, listen to music, ...

INVITATION TO
a sleepover at ...'s house

Dear ...

Please come to my party.

It's on ...

It's at my house: ...

It's from ... to ...

We can ...

Please bring ...

I hope you can come.

...

Write your name here.

Write the day and the date of your party here.
Example: Saturday, 21st May

Write your address here.

What can people bring?
Examples: a sleeping bag, pyjamas, swimming things, DVDs, CDs, something to eat, ...

You can imagine other themes for your birthday party, for example a dress party, a gaming party, a sports party and so on.

Use suitable (passende) pictures  for your invitation.

⇒ Give your invitation to another child in your class.

Quelle: Headlight 1, S. 85.