

Name: _____ Date: _____ A.M/P.M

Student ID: _____ (Quiz, Homework, Writing)

10 multiple-choice questions based on the information provided in the "Words from Greek Myths".

1. What was the main language used for communication between nations during the period of the Silk Road trade?

- a) Latin
- b) Greek
- c) Chinese
- d) Arabic

2. What type of journey is referred to as an "odyssey"?

- a) A short and easy trip
- b) A long and difficult trip
- c) A journey by sea
- d) A journey by land

3. Which of the following Greek mythological characters became well-known across Europe?

- a) Zeus
- b) Odysseus
- c) Hercules
- d) All of the above

4. What type of drink was "nectar," the drink enjoyed by the Greek gods?

- a) Wine
- b) Beer
- c) Fruit juice
- d) A delicious alcoholic beverage

5. Which of the following best describes a "Herculean task"?

- a) An easy task
- b) A moderately challenging task
- c) A task that would be difficult even for Hercules
- d) A task that involves physical strength

6. What happened to the importance of the Greek language over time?
- a) It remained a major international language
 - b) It became more popular and widespread
 - c) It became less important as local languages became more popular
 - d) It was completely replaced by other languages
7. How long did the Silk Road trade route connect Asia, Africa, and Europe?
- a) Around 50 BCE to 1000 CE b) Around 120 BCE to 1450 CE
 - c) Around 200 BCE to 1600 CE d) Around 300 BCE to 1700 CE
8. Why did knowing the Greek language become essential for traders during the Silk Road period?
- a) Greece was the gateway into Europe for trade
 - b) The Greek gods required traders to speak Greek
 - c) Greek was the only language allowed for trade transactions
 - d) Traders had to learn Greek to communicate with the local population
9. What happened to the use of ships in trade along the Silk Road over time?
- a) Ships became the primary mode of transportation
 - b) The use of ships increased dramatically
 - c) Traders stopped traveling over land and began using ships
 - d) The use of ships increased as the importance of the Greek language declined
10. Which of the following best describes how words from Greek myths and legends remained in European languages?
- a) They completely replaced native vocabulary
 - b) They were quickly forgotten and disappeared
 - c) They were partially incorporated but later removed
 - d) They remained and continued to be used in the common languages of Europeans