Learning Spanish

Nora Planck, a world-renowned actress, goes on a podcast to promote her new movie. In this movie, she plays a Hispanic American, Ellen Ochoa who became the first Hispanic female _____ (21). To prepare for this role, Nora had to undergo _____ (22) training and learn Spanish. She _____ (23) her Spanish studies even after the film ended. After all, the Spanish language has the _____ (24) highest number of native speakers in the world.

When learning Spanish, Nora was most worried about her poor _____ (25). However, she was a natural. Nora believed that her passion for Spanish _____ (26) was the main reason for her accurate accent.

Three years ago, Nora travelled to Spain. She was quite afraid of starting a conversation in Spanish. So she decided to visit a local _____ (27) by herself. Even though she enjoyed the exhibitions, she was _____ (28) to learn about the museum's early closing time for the month of _____ (29). The staff explained that a film director was making a documentary.

From her experience, Nora advises language learners to have the _____ (30) to speak bravely.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

[30 marks]