

VOCAL MUSIC -4

What is a bass?

A bass is the lowest male part in a choir, opera, musical, country music, jazz, pop music and many other styles of music.

What is the vocal range of a bass?

A bass voice usually has the range from the second E below middle C to E above middle C.

Famous operatic basses.

Boris Christoff, Nicolai Ghiaurov, Rene Pape, Kurt Moll, Cesare Siepe, Martti Talvela, Samuel Ramey, Giulio Neri, Jerome Hines, Matti Salminen, David Greco, Dmitri Hvorostovsky and David Hubbard are just some of the many operatic basses.

Famous non operatic basses.

Tim Foust, William Warfield, Paul Robeson, Peter Steele, Leonard Cohen, Tomi P, Geoff Castellucci, Avi Kaplan, Luther Billis, Bill McCue, Barry White, Eric Hollaway.

Q1 - What is a bass?

Q2 - What is the vocal range of a bass?

Q3 - Name a famous operatic bass.

Q4 - Name a famous non operatic bass.