

Up and down

FUNCTIONAL LANGUAGE

Asking for and giving directions

Match the phrases to give directions.

- |                           |                          |
|---------------------------|--------------------------|
| 1 Take the...             | A hallway.               |
| 2 Go straight down the... | B downstairs / upstairs. |
| 3 Go through the...       | C elevator.              |
| 4 Just go...              | D lobby.                 |
|                           | E escalator.             |
|                           | F doors on your left.    |
|                           | G stairs.                |

LISTENING

Asking for and giving directions

Listen to the conversation and complete the sentences.

- A Excuse me, can you tell me how to get to <sup>1</sup> _____?
- B The cafeteria? Oh, it's not far. Just take the elevator to the <sup>2</sup> _____, go down the hallway, and look for the signs.
- A Hmm, and where is the elevator?
- B Go straight ahead through those doors. It's on the <sup>3</sup> _____.
- A Which doors?
- B Those doors by the window, but you know, the elevator takes forever. You might want to use <sup>4</sup> _____.
- A Oh, which way are <sup>5</sup> _____?
- B They're next to the <sup>6</sup> _____. You can't miss them.
- A Thank you!