Midterm ExamReading Comprehension

Read the passage. Then read the statements and cross out the FALSE one. Number the true statements in the order that they happened (1 – 6).

Claire Walters was watching TV in her living room when she suddenly heard two fire engines pull up in the street outside her house. Terrified that her house was on fire, she rushed outside and saw a crowd of people all looking upwards. Claire also looked up and saw a sheep standing on her roof.

A fire service spokesman said that the sheep had got onto the roof from a garage at the back of Claire's house. Firefighters climbed up a ladder and talked to the sheep for 40 minutes, and finally persuaded the animal to climb back down. The sheep was later spotted eating a mouthful of grass in its field near the small town of Usk in South Wales. It seemed unharmed and none the worse for its adventure.

- The sheep climbed down.
- Claire started watching TV.
- Claire went outside.
- Claire heard fire engines.
- The sheep was eating grass in Usk.
- Firefighters talked to the sheep.
