

- |                                                                   |                                                                             |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1 The chart shows                                          | a choose its museums and galleries as the things they like the most. |
| 2 The largest percentage, 36 percent,                      | b choose its friendly inhabitants.                                   |
| 3 22 percent                                               | c choose other things.                                               |
| 4 16 percent of visitors                                   | d think that its summer arts festival is the best thing about it.    |
| 5 The city's cafés, bars and restaurants were popular with | e think the city's cultural attractions are its best features.       |
| 6 10 percent                                               | f another 16 percent of visitors.                                    |
| 7 Overall, the majority of visitors                        | g what visitors to Edinburgh like most about the city.               |