Fill in the blanks with the correct idiom

1. _____ and start the meeting by discussing the sales targets for next quarter.

2. After hours of debate, the team couldn't agree, so they decided to _____ until the next meeting.

3. Before we proceed, we need to _____ to make sure everyone understands the new policy.

4. The CEO encouraged the team to _____ and develop a completely new approach to product design.

5. The meeting was getting sidetracked, so Sarah suggested they _____ and focus on the most critical issue.

6. I'm going to _____ and tell you exactly what I think about the new proposal.

7. The project is falling behind, se we need to _____ and figure out what's causing the delays.

8. Before finalizing the project, the team needs to _____ on the potential risks and benefits.

9. We've been discussing this for too long; it's time to _____ and end the meeting.

10. During the meeting, nobody wanted to _____ , so the problem remained unsolved.

Match the idioms to their context.

1. Scenario: The team has been working on a meeting strategy for weeks, but they need to have one last meeting to finalize everything.

   Idiom:

2. Scenario: The project manager realizes that the team needs to align their goals before moving forward.

   Idiom:

3. Scenario: During the strategy meeting, an important but uncomfortable issue needs to be discussed.

   Idiom:

4. Scenario: A new market trend has emerged, and the team is encouraged to explore it thoroughly.

   Idiom:

5. Scenario: At the start of the meeting, the team lead asks the group to focus on the key points and avoid unnecessary details.

   Idiom:

6. Scenario: The team is in the early stages of a project and needs to start making initial decisions.

   Idiom:

7. Scenario: Two departments have different opinions on a project and need to reach an agreement.

   Idiom:

8. Scenario: The client is unhappy with the project's progress, so the team needs to identify the underlying issues.

   Idiom: