

Subject and Verb

Choose which words are the subjects and the verbs of their sentences.

The campers took their tents to the forest.

Jill and Rita write articles for their local newspaper.

A strange family moved into the neighbourhood.

The sheep and their lambs slept in the field.

Some smart scientists found a new element.

Our older siblings went to England for a concert.

The ghastly creature hid in the swamp.

Mary and Mark worked on the project together.

The shop assistant helped my uncle to find a new hat.

Xena, Qobile and Enid often pick flowers from the garden.

The little girl played happily in her tree house.

Predicate

Type the predicate of each sentence in the box below it.

The campers took their tents to the forest.

A strange family moved into the neighbourhood.

Some smart scientists found a new element.

Our older siblings went to England for a concert.

Make your own sentences with these subjects and verbs:

herd of elephants/marched

Bongi and Bella/do

Make your own sentences with these predicates:

jump through the hoops.

reached for her brother's phone.

My level of effort today was .

Next time I could improve by .