Subject:	My Trip to Niah Cave in Sarawak

Dear Farah,

How are you? I just want to share with about my trip to the Niah Cave in Sarawak. My family and I had a fantastic two-day adventure there.

First, we went to Niah National Park from Miri by taxi. The Niah National Park is one of the most beautiful parks in Sarawak. This park is especially famous for the many limestone caves. Those days, people used to live in these limestone caves. It was awesome to see a real limestone cave.

The caves are also known for the many swiftlet's nests. When we were there, we saw climbers looking for the nests. These nests are found in higher parts of the enormous caves. Imagine these climbers standing on stepladders made of bamboo. There they tried to get a good harvest. It is said that these swiftlets' nests are sold at over US$1000 per kilogram in Hong Kong and Singapore.

We were there for a number of hours. We saw swiftlets flying back into the caves at the end of the day. I was extremely shocked to see a black cloud flying around sunset. My dad told me that millions of bats were flying out of the caves to hunt for food.

'The caves, swiftlets and bats are treasures of Malaysia,' said my dad. I realise that we must always take good care of these treasures.

I have attached some breathtaking photographs that I have captured. Bye for now.

Your cousin,

Nora

Questions 15 to 20

Read the texts about three different people talking about their experience with sports. For each question, choose the correct answer (A, B or C) who fits the description.

A	Hani I used to do every sport I could when I was at school. I loved the activities, and I also liked being a member of a team. We had some great time together. We travelled to matches by bus and had celebrations when we won. Then, I was in a terrible car accident five years ago, and it hurt my ankle. It still isn't better. It's made me really miserable. The only sport I can do is fishing, and that's boring! But a friend of mine had suggested going sailing. It sounds fun, so I think I'll try that.
B	Dania I did a lot of team sports at school, like hockey, netball and volleyball. But I'm not very fast or strong, so I couldn't hit a ball hard. Often, members of my team would laugh at me so I stopped playing sports as soon as I could because it upsets me. But later I learned that you can exercise without other people around. Now I go walking, running, swimming and cycling, but always on my own. Now, no one can get mad at me when I am slow.
C	Xin Ling I don't mind team sports. I'm quite good at squash and tennis, but I prefer doing sports when there aren't lots of other people making noise, laughing and telling jokes. That's why I like surfing. It's just me and the sea and a few other people who also like quiet, beautiful places. I think I enjoy horse riding and skating too, for the same reason, but these sports are expensive. I already spent a lot travelling to different beaches with my board.
