

Listening time

Watch a video about weird driving rules in different places to the world, and for questions 1 to 6, choose the correct option.

1 When is running out of fuel on a German motorway allowed?

- a.Never.
- b.Only when it's an emergency.
- c.Only when you can prevent traffic congestion or an accident.

2 What must you do before taking your car in Denmark?

- a.Check that the children are sitting safely.
- b.Check that your children are using their seats.
- c.Check that there are no kids near your car.

3 What is true in Spain?

- a.You can't wear sandals unless coming from the beach.
- b.You must always wear safe footwear.
- c.You can wear comfortable shoes or no shoes at all.

4 What does the video imply about the law in Alaska?

- a.You cannot carry a pet unless it's tied.
- b.You can't let your dog climb onto the roof of your car.

c.You mustn't carry your pet on the roof of your car.

5 When can you drive in Manila?

- a.It depends on the number on your number plate.
- b.If you can drive on Monday, you cannot drive on Tuesday.
- c.It depends on the colour of your number plate.

6 In Thailand, you mustn't drive without a shirt...

- a.because it's not decent.
- b.unless it's very hot.
- c.unless your air conditioning is not working.

PART B

Watch the video again and, Complete the ideas with one word

1 If you are driving your car in Germany, some places have no speed _____.... you just need to remember to fill up the tank...

2 Danish want to keep their children safe. You can face legal consequences..... This can include fines and possibly _____ on your driving record.

3 In Spain, you must wear comfortable shoes when you drive. So, You can face a £70 fine if a police officer believes you are wearing is _____ shoes

4 a law in Alaska says that you can't carry your furry pet this way.... you mustn't drive with your animal companion _____ on the roof of your car.

5 In Manila, in the Philippines, if it's Monday, you cannot drive if your number plate ends in 1 or 2. There is too much _____ in Manila, so there is a law called the "number coding"

6 In Thailand, temperatures can reach up to 40°C (104°F), so ...you must always wear a shirt while driving. There is a law that says you can't drive without a shirt, This law is used to promote decency and safety on the _____.