

Guess what!

LISTENING

The general idea

Listen to the conversation and complete the statements.

- 1 The friend collects games / robots / comic books.
- 2 The friends plan to have dinner / see a movie / shop online.
- 3 They will get together on Tuesday / Friday / Saturday.

LISTENING

Introduce a topic, change the subject, and stay on track

Listen and complete the conversation.

- A So, ¹ _____ I'm interested in old toys, right?
- B Yeah, I guessed that! Look at this room. How many robots do you have now?
- A Twenty-six! And ² _____! I just bought two more online.
- B Cool! Are they in good condition?
- A I don't know. I haven't gotten them yet. I'm expecting them on Saturday. ³ _____, they looked good in the photos. ⁴ _____, have you heard that Tori is in town?
- B No, I haven't seen her since she moved.

Read the conversation again. What two topics are discussed?

Which expression below introduces a new topic? Which changes the subject?

Which helps stay on track? Discuss with a partner; then practice the conversation.

FUNCTIONAL LANGUAGE

Introduce a new topic

Check your answers. How could you use these expressions to introduce a topic to your friend?

_____ I'm interested in old toys, right?

And _____ I just bought two more online.

FUNCTIONAL LANGUAGE

Stay on track and change the subject

Check your answers.

Stay on track:

_____, they looked good in the photos.

Change the subject:

_____, have you heard that Tori is in town?

