4 Choose the correct option.

When I told my teacher that I wanted to become a journalist, he 1 advised/said me to try and get some experience in journalism or the media. I 2 advised/admitted that I hadn't thought of that, but thought it was a great idea. He 3 told/offered me to get in touch with the local radio station, and 4 advised/agreed to help me write an email asking if they needed volunteers. Now I'm working there on Saturdays. It's really fun! My cousin works on a TV news programme. When I 5 asked/promised her to tell me what it was like, she 6 invited/suggested me to spend the day with her there. So, I did! It was really exciting to see all the journalists and reporters. While I was there, one of my cousin's colleagues 7 invited/suggested that I should do work experience at the studio and he even 8 offered/refused to arrange it for the school holidays. I can't wait!
