

3 So . . . that and such . . . that

Add an adjective or an adjective + noun to complete these sentences.
Don't use nice or good!

CB Section A7

- a It was such a(n) _____ that she won the Oscar for Best Actress.
- b It was such a(n) _____ that I had to read on to the end.
- c I thought he was such a(n) _____, I can't wait to see his next film.
- d Jack is so _____ in the role of romantic hero that I almost fell in love with him.
- e The tragic ending was so _____, I felt exhausted by the end.
- f There was such a _____ queue for tickets that I gave up and went home.
- g The soundtrack was so _____ that Demis went straight onto the website and downloaded it.
- h The final scene is so _____, you should be prepared for tears.

B Describing and recommending films

1 Odd word out

Cross out the adjective that does not sound right in these sentences.

CB Section B2

- a In my opinion, this film shouldn't be missed – it's really impressive / magnificent / superb / memorable / conscious / enjoyable / wonderful.
- b This is one of the most engaging / disturbing / powerful / sufficient / delightful / remarkable / thrilling dramas I've seen in years.
- c The costumes in the movie looked absolutely stunning / substantial / tremendous / beautiful / unbelievable / incredible / astonishing.