Do you want to be fitter and healthier? Would you like to look younger? Do you want to feel (21) ..... relaxed? Then try a few days at a health farm. Health farms are becoming one of the most popular places for a short break. I went to Henley Manor for a weekend. It's (22) ..... largest health farm in the country but it isn't the most expensive. After two days of exercise and massage I felt ten times better. But the best thing for me was the food. It was all very healthy of course , but it (23) ..... expensive too!

(24) ..... you're looking for something a little cheaper, try a winter break. Winter is the darkest and the coldest (25) .....of the year, and it can also be the worst time for your body. We all eat too much and we don't take enough exercise. A lot of health farms offer lower prices from Monday to Friday from November to March.

II. Read the following passage and choose the correct option A, B, C or D for each question.

Gestures are a common way to communicate. However, the same gestures can express different meanings in different countries. For example, in the UK, the 'thumbs up' sign means everything is good. But in France, it can mean number 1. Another example is the 'come here' sign. You curl your index finger to ask somebody to come to you in the UK while Asian people use it for calling pets. Asians call other people with a similar hand movement but with their palm downward.

Moreover, tapping the nose means 'It's a secret' in England but 'Watch out!' in Italy. In the USA, you can say 'I'm OK' or 'All is well' by touching the thumb and index finger to make a circle, with the last three fingers up. But, this gesture means 'zero' in France, and in some European countries such as Brazil or Turkey, it is totally rude.
