

Past simple

Listen to the audio about and fill in the missing verbs

The Lost cat

Once upon a time, a little cat named Felix      in a small house. One day, Felix      outside to play. He chased butterflies and      trees. After a while, Felix      lost.

Felix      around the neighborhood. He saw many things but didn't find his house. He      a friendly dog named Max.

Max      , "I can help you find your home."

Max and Felix      together. They      people in the neighborhood if they had seen Felix's house. Finally, a kind old lady pointed to a house with a red door. Felix felt very happy because it was his home!

Felix thanked Max and      inside. He      so relieved to be back. From that day on, Felix      close to his house and safely in his yard.

Listen again and select the correct answer

Where did Felix live?

Who did Felix meet while he was lost?

The door of Felix's house was red

How did Felix finally find his house?