

My Family's Daily Routine

Every day, my family works together to keep their home clean and tidy. In the morning, we have a specific task. My father is busy cleaning the windows, making sure they are spotless. He stands by the window with a cloth in his hand, carefully wiping off any dirt or dust.

On the other side of the room, My mother organizes the bookshelf. She adjusts the books and dusts the shelves to keep them in order. Her careful attention ensures that everything is neat and ready for use.

Meanwhile, My sister is in the middle of mopping the floor. She moves the mop back and forth with focus, making sure the floor shines. Near her, My young brother is carrying two large bags of trash out of the house. He seems determined to get the job done, helping keep the home free of clutter.

In the foreground, My young sister is tidying up the toys. She picks up her teddy bear and other toys, putting them back in their place. She is a responsible and helpful young girl, contributing to the family's efforts to keep the house clean.

Through teamwork and cooperation, My family maintains a clean and pleasant living environment. Each member plays an important role in keeping the household in order
