THERE IS / THERE ARE

A Walk in the Park

Use There is and There are to talk about things that you can see or that exist.
Statements	Questions
There is a beautiful park in Springfield. There isn't a park in Livingston.	Is there a beautiful park in Springfield? Yes, there is.
There are people in the park. There aren't any ducks in the park.	Are there any ducks in the park? No, there aren't.
Use any with negative statements or with questions that use plurals or uncountable nouns.

A. Look at the picture and then mark each There is/are statement true or false.

1. There are flowers T / F
2. There are people riding bikes. T / F
3. There isn't any grass. T / F
4. There are eight people. T / F
5. There are dogs. T / F
6. There is a city nearby. T / F
7. There aren't any lamps. T / F
8. There is a woman running. T / F

B. Rewrite the false statements from Exercise A to make them true.

.....

.....

.....

.....

C. Read each question about the picture and write a short answer.

1. Are there any trees in the park? .....
2. Is there a family having a picnic? .....
3. Is there a man wearing a hat? .....
4. Are there people riding bikes? .....
5. Is there a boy playing football? .....

Edinburgh College

LIVEWORKSHEETS