

First and second conditional

- 1 Which sentences are the first conditional (FC)? Which sentences are the second conditional (SC)?
- 1 If you sit too close to the TV, you'll hurt your eyes. FC
 - 2 If people didn't use their phones so much, everyone would be happier. ____
 - 3 The concert will sell out if we don't book tickets today. ____
 - 4 Would you live in a different country if you had the chance? ____
 - 5 If I were you, I'd change your privacy settings on your phone. ____
 - 6 If I give you some money, will you get me an ice cream from the shop? ____

First conditional

- 2 Choose the correct option.
- 1 If it s/will be sunny today, we'll have lunch in the garden.
 - 2 If Tania does well in her exams, she applies/'ll apply to college.
 - 3 You won't sleep well if you will use/use your phone late at night.
 - 4 Where will we stay/do we stay if all the hotels are full?
 - 5 If my little brother is still awake later, I'll give/give him his present.
 - 6 Unless Javed plays in the basketball match tomorrow, we don't have/won't have a full team.

Second conditional

- 3 Complete the questions and answers with the verbs in the box.

found was ~~won~~ 'd go
'd report 'd take

What would you do if you

1 won £1,000?

If I won £1000, I 2 _____ to South America for a holiday!

What would you do if you

3 _____ a phone in the street?

If I found a phone in the street, I

4 _____ it to a police station.

What would you do if someone

5 _____ mean to you online?

If someone was mean to me online,

I 6 _____ them to an adult.

Third conditional

- 4 Choose the correct answers to complete the sentences.
- 1 If we'd known the test was important,
a we worked harder.
b we'd have worked harder.
 - 2 I'd have come to your birthday
a if you'd told me about it.
b if you tell me about it.
 - 3 If my dad hadn't become an engineer,
a he would have been a nurse.
b he was a nurse.
 - 4 Kara and Jo wouldn't have uploaded the photo of Sam
a if she didn't give them permission.
b if she hadn't given them permission.