★ ALL STARS ★ PRACTICAL WORK

As Riley prepares for high school and a hockey game, her emotions help her build a strong "Sense of Self" by organizing important memories that shape her character. They also create a system to discard unpleasant memories. Riley decides to try out for her high school's hockey team, the Fire Hawks, and her emotions ensure she feels confident and prepared to face the challenges ahead.

WATCH NOW

Watch the movie and write the information required about the characters!

WHAT ARE THEY GOOD AND BAD AT?

Remember to write full sentences!

GOOD:

BAD:

GOOD:

BAD:

GOOD:

BAD:

GOOD:

BAD:

GOOD:

BAD:

PHYSICAL TRAITS!

Write short physical descriptions about Riley's friends.

GRACE:

BREE:

LIVEWORKSHEETS

LISTENING!

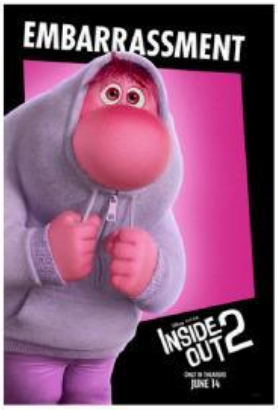

Listen to Anxiety describing the other emotions. Match them writing the names next to each dialogue!

After listening, choose one and write a complete character description.

1

2

3

4

READING!

Read about Riley's family.
Complete with the missing words.

In Inside Out 2, Riley's family _____ got a starring role during the film. What we know is her _____ has got a great sense of humor, always making her laugh, while her _____ has got talent for business.

What you probably don't know is that Riley's grandfather and grandmother don't live near to Riley's. However, they _____ got plenty of love for her. Riley _____ not got a sister and she has _____ got a brother. Riley's mom's _____ live near their house. She is Riley's aunt. Her aunt's husband and her have got three _____ who are Riley's cousins. They visit the family often, making lovely family gatherings. Riley is good _____ making friends. They are like family to her.

LIVEWORKSHEETS