

Multiple-Choice Test: Leaf Storm (Chapter 1)

1. Who is the primary narrator of the first chapter of Leaf Storm?

- a) The Colonel
 - b) The Doctor
 - c) The Narrator (a young boy)
 - d) The Widow
-

2. The story begins with the funeral preparations of which character?

- a) The Colonel
 - b) The Doctor
 - c) The Narrator
 - d) The Mayor
-

3. How does the narrator describe the atmosphere in the room during the funeral preparations?

- a) Lively and chaotic
 - b) Silent and oppressive
 - c) Bright and cheerful
 - d) Calm and peaceful
-

4. What relationship does the Colonel have with the deceased?

- a) He is his son
 - b) He is his brother
 - c) He is his old friend
 - d) He is his father
-

5. Why does the Colonel feel obligated to attend the funeral?

- a) He wants to honor his friend
 - b) He feels a moral duty
 - c) He is the only one who cared for the deceased
 - d) He was ordered by the Mayor
-

6. What does the young narrator primarily observe about the adults around him?

- a) Their sadness
 - b) Their anger
 - c) Their indifference
 - d) Their confusion
-

7. What is the general attitude of the town towards the deceased?

- a) They are mourning deeply
 - b) They are indifferent and hostile
 - c) They are celebrating his death
 - d) They are confused about his identity
-

8. How does the Colonel's daughter feel about attending the funeral?

- a) She is eager and happy
 - b) She is indifferent
 - c) She is reluctant and upset
 - d) She is scared and anxious
-

9. What significant event in the town's history is hinted at in the first chapter?

- a) A recent war
 - b) A political uprising
 - c) The arrival of foreign invaders
 - d) A tragic accident
-

10. The Colonel reflects on a "leaf storm." What does this metaphor likely represent?

- a) The changing seasons
- b) The arrival of strangers in town
- c) The chaotic and destructive nature of events
- d) The beauty of nature