

A Fun Day at the Beach

1 One sunny day, many people _____ to Sandy Beach, and they were ready to have fun. Close to the water, a boy named
2 Alex _____ in the waves, and he moved through the water, diving under and jumping over the waves. His sister, Lily,
3 watched him from the sand, and she cheered loudly.

4 Under a big umbrella, some friends _____ to each other, and they laughed and talked as they sat in the shade. One of 5 the friends, Sarah, was reading a book, but she put it down and joined the conversation. Not far away, a man named Mr.
6 Brown _____ in his notebook, and he made notes about the beach for his next picture. He described the sky and the waves,
7 and he tried to remember every detail.

8 At the pier, a boy named Ben was fishing with his dad, and after a little while, Ben felt a pull on his line. He pulled hard and 9 _____ a big fish, and his dad smiled as Ben showed the fish to everyone. Nearby, a family was having a picnic, and the 10 mom gave out drinks while everyone _____ lemonade to cool off in the sun. The kids laughed and played in the sand, and 11 they enjoyed their drinks together.

12 All around the beach, people were having fun, and they enjoyed the sunny day at Sandy Beach.

