

Read the sentences carefully, and choose between present simple or continuous

She is recording her podcast at this moment.	We are playing music on our cell phones now.
We are using the Internet to research our homework.	You cannot trust social media all the time.
I have a PC at home.	My friend is sending a postcard right now.
They are using their digital cameras to record a video.	The boy calls his friends with his phone.
My dad listens to the radio every day.	Our cousins use their DVD player to watch movies after school.

Simple Present

Present Continuous