

<input type="checkbox"/> The House of Whispers by Anna Mazzola	<input type="checkbox"/> The Cafe on the Edge of the World by John Strelecky	<input type="checkbox"/> The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo by Taylor Jenkins Reid	<input type="checkbox"/> Weyward by Emilia Hart	<input type="checkbox"/> It by Stephen King
<input type="checkbox"/> The Theory of Everything by Stephen Hawking	<input type="checkbox"/> Nineteen Eighty-Four by George Orwell	<input type="checkbox"/> Harry Potter and the Philosopher's Stone by J. K. Rowling	<input type="checkbox"/> The Little Prince by Antoine de Saint-Exupéry	<input type="checkbox"/> The Lord of the Rings by J. R. R. Tolkien

1. Disillusioned with life, a man takes an unexpected journey to a remote place where he engages in profound conversations with a mysterious guide, exploring the deeper meaning of life and purpose.

2. In a magical world where doors can transport you to different realms, a young woman discovers her unique ability to navigate these portals, unravelling a hidden prophecy and facing ancient enemies.

3. Hollywood icon recounts her glamorous yet tumultuous life and marriages to a struggling journalist, revealing secrets that will change both of their lives forever.

4. In Victorian London, a young woman, struggling with her own demons, is drawn into a dark secret involving missing girls, dark secrets, and the haunting allure of the mystery.

5. In the town of Derry, a group of childhood friends reunites to confront the horrifying entity, which takes on the form of their deepest fears.

6. Follow the journey of a young wizard, as he discovers his magical abilities and learns about the wizarding world at Magical School, all while facing the dark forces that threaten it.

7. Set in a dystopian future, this classic explores the oppressive regime of the Party led by Big Brother, where the protagonist, Winston Smith, rebels against the surveillance state and seeks the truth.

8. In the mystical realm of Middle-earth, the main character, undertakes a dangerous journey to destroy a powerful ring. Joined by a diverse fellowship, they face magical creatures and dark forces, confronting tests of loyalty, courage, and sacrifice to save Middle-earth from impending doom.

9. Renowned physicist shares his groundbreaking theories on the nature of the universe, intertwining his personal journey with scientific discoveries that revolutionised our understanding of space and time.

10. A whimsical and philosophical tale of a young character who travels from planet to planet, encountering unique characters and learning valuable life lessons, ultimately exploring the importance of human connections.

Person A: "So, what's everyone been reading lately? I'm really into mystery novels these days. There's something about the suspense that keeps me hooked."

Person B: "Oh, I love a good mystery too! But I prefer reading biographies over anything else. Learning about people's lives and what shaped them is so fascinating to me."

Person C: "Honestly, I've never been able to get into biographies or mystery novels. I'm not a big fan of reading in general. It just doesn't capture my attention."

Person A: "Really? That's surprising! I always make time for a good mystery. It's like solving a puzzle, and I can't put the book down until I figure it out."

Person B: "I totally get that. For me, though, I have a soft spot for classic literature. There's just something timeless about it that I find irresistible."

Person C: "I guess I just tend to gravitate towards other things, like movies or video games. Books have never really been my thing."

Person A: "That's fair. But have you ever tried fantasy novels? They're so immersive; I tend to gravitate towards them when I want to escape reality for a bit."

Person B: "Fantasy is great too! I read a lot of it when I was younger. But now, I'm more into non-fiction. It's amazing how different our tastes can be, isn't it?"

Person C: "Yeah, I suppose so. Maybe one day I'll find a genre that clicks for me. Until then, I'll stick to my movies!"

Expressions to describe your interests

LET'S TALK

1. Person A: "I'm really into horror books and thrillers."
Student B: "_____"

2. Person A: "I prefer reading science fiction over anything else. The futuristic worlds fascinate me."
Student B: "_____"

3. Person A: "I have a soft spot for historical fiction. It's like traveling back in time."
Student B: "_____"

4. Person A: "I'm not a big fan of romance novels. They just don't hold my interest."
Student B: "_____"

5. Person A: "I tend to gravitate towards fantasy books, especially ones with dragons and magic."
Student B: "_____"

6. Person A: "I always make time for reading biographies. Learning about real people's lives is so intriguing."
Student B: "_____"

7. Person A: "I've never been able to get into classic literature. The old language is a bit tough for me."
Student B: "_____"

8. Person A: "I'm obsessed with dystopian novels. The idea of a world gone wrong is so gripping."
Student B: "_____"

9. Person A: "I'm really into self-help books. They've helped me improve my life in so many ways."
Student B: "_____"

10. Person A: "I prefer reading fantasy novels with strong female leads. They're so empowering."
Student B: "_____"