

Seasons

by
ERNEST AINES

Exercise 1

Complete the sentences with the correct form of DO and the verbs in brackets.

- I _____ (not know) how the grass grows.
- I _____ (not notice) seasons anymore.
- I _____ (not know) the reasons anymore.
- They _____ (not grow) in the shade.

Exercise 2

Listen to the song 'Seasons' by Ernest AINES and complete the gaps with the sentences from Ex. 2.

Note: you can use the same sentences more than once!

_____ (1) how the grass grows.
From a seed to a blade.

_____ (2) in the shade.
Oh no...

Well, life is more than fear.
Losing raffles in relationships.
This could be a good year,
Oh, yeah

Chorus

_____ (3) the reasons anymore.
_____ (4) seasons anymore, ooh ooh
_____ (5) the reasons anymore.
_____ (6) seasons anymore, ooooh

When nowhere feels like home.
And you are better on your own.
She said she'd always fall for the nice guy.

Chorus

_____ (7) the reasons.
Are there any left to find?
And when you said you loved me.
Were you ever really mine?
Were you ever really mine?

_____ (8) the reasons.
Are there any left to find?
And when you said you loved me.
Were you ever really mine? (X3)

Chorus
