

Transform the sentences, maintaining the meaning but using different structures of comparative or superlative forms.

1. The first presentation was less convincing than the second one. (convincing)

The first presentation was _____ the second one.

2. Completing the project was easier than expected. (demanding)

Completing the project was _____ expected.

3. Their performance was the most excellent one in the group (good)

Their performance was _____ in the group.

4. The training was less helpful than I thought it would be. (useful)

The training was _____ I thought it would be.

5. The final stage of the job was the easiest part. (challenging)

The final stage of the job was _____ part.

6. This meeting was the most productive one we've ever had. (fruitful)

This meeting was _____ one we've ever had.

7. This year's sales were higher than last year's sales. (low)

This year's sales were _____ last year's sales.

8. He did worse than anticipated at the meeting with the new boss. (well)

He did not do _____ anticipated at the meeting with the new boss.