In the present simple negative form, there are two third-person singular auxiliary verbs: isn't or doesn't.

Isn't is used with adjectives or nouns.

Examples: My mum isn't angry. She isn't a doctor.

Doesn't is used with a main verb in the infinitive form.

Examples: Gabriel doesn't work in an office. Rosa doesn't eat vegetables.

A. Complete the present simple negative sentences with isn't or doesn't.

1. Angela lives in the UK. She ..... live in the US.
2. My job ..... difficult. That's why I like it.
3. She ..... like ice cream because it's too cold.
4. Adam ..... happy because he failed his English test.
5. Lucas ..... play football. He plays badminton.
6. Marek ..... a businessman.
7. This film ..... interesting to me.
8. Anton ..... want to go to the party because he's feeling tired.
9. Juan ..... like rainy days.
10. My dad ..... like it when I come home late.

B.

1. My school not near my house.
2. Tony don't watch old films.
3. My car isn't have a radio.
4. Katarzyna rides a bike. She isn't drive a car.

C. Rewrite the sentences above to make them correct.

1. .....
2. .....
3. .....
4. .....

Edinburgh College

LIVEWORKSHEETS