

Preference for Question Types in Conversations

1 Answer the Questions!

00:00 - 06:11

<https://youtu.be/CzoxIVPtPgl>

- 1 Indirect questions are used to make questions more polite.
- 2 The phrase "Do you know" is used in direct questions.
- 3 In indirect questions, the subject and verb order is the same as in statements.
- 4 "Can you tell me what time is it?" is an example of a correct indirect question.
- 5 "Whether" is more formal than "if" in yes-no indirect questions.
- 6 Indirect questions are rarely used in English.
- 7 The auxiliary verbs "does" and "did" are not used in indirect questions.