Date: _____

Text 2 A Read the story.

One evening at home, Nancy and Harry are making a model in the dining room. They are also making a big mess!

Mum is in the kitchen. She is cooking dinner. It is nearly time to eat. 'Nancy, please clear the table,' says Mum. 'Can you set the table too, please?'

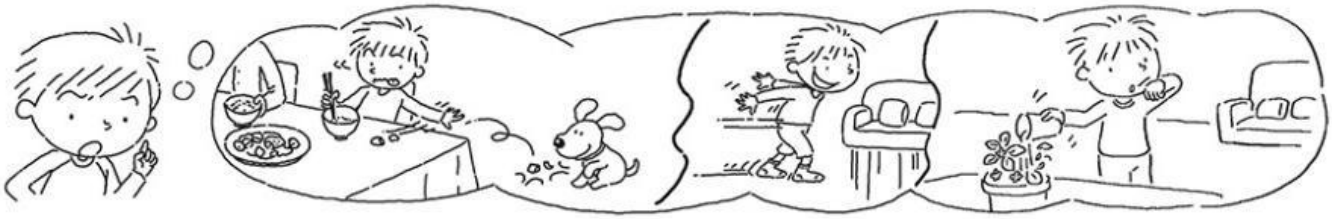

Nancy isn't happy. 'I help a lot at home,' she says. 'I make the beds. I hang up the washing. I put away my toys and Harry's toys. I dust the shelves. Harry doesn't help. Harry can clear the table.'

Now Harry isn't happy. 'I help at home too!' he says.

'What do you do?' asks Nancy.

Harry thinks. 'I feed the dog,' he says, 'and I clean the floor. I also water the plants.'

Mum comes into the room. 'Good boy,' she says. 'Nancy, please clear the table.' Harry smiles.

'Grrr!' says Nancy.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Date: _____

B Read the story again. Who says these things? Write the names in the brackets.

1 'I feed the dog.' (  )
2 'I put the toys away.' (  )
3 'I water the plants.' (  )
4 'I make the beds.' (  )
5 'I dust the shelves.' (  )
6 'I clean the floor.' (  )
7 'I hang up the washing.' (  )

C Blacken ● the circles.

1 In the story, Mum is ____ .

○ A. eating dinner ○ B. clearing the table
○ C. making dinner ○ D. making a model

2 ____ think(s) Harry helps at home.

① Nancy ② Harry ③ Mum

○ A. ② only ○ B. ③ only ○ C. ② and ③ ○ D. ①, ② and ③

☆3 At the end, Nancy says 'Grrr!' because she is ____ .

○ A. happy ○ B. not happy
○ C. bored ○ D. hungry

Read the sentences before. What does Mum say?

D Who do you think is a good child? Nancy or Harry? Why?

I think _____ is a good child. He / She _____

_____

LIVEWORKSHEETS