

Fill in the correct phrasal verb, then match to the pictures
1	Quick! _____ the TV! The football match is about to begin.
2	When Beauty kissed the beast, he _____ a handsome prince. It never happens when I do it... May be I should start kissing frogs instead...
3	Mom! Dad! I am trying to do my homework. Please _____ the TV! I can't concentrate with all that noise!
4	If you're done reading, please _____ the light. I must get some sleep.
5	They found a suitcase full of money but they decided to _____ it _____ to the police. What would you do?
6	Don't forget to _____ the fan before you leave your room. We're trying to save electricity.
7	Hey! _____ the radio! I love this song! It makes me want to dance! Come on!
8	The club owner _____ Jack _____ because he didn't wear a tie. Can you believe it? What kind of club was it anyway?
9	The innocent sweet nurse _____ to be a vicious murderer. I never considered her to be the killer.
10	I don't know why I like her. She simply _____ me _____ whenever I see her. She's gorgeous! She reminds me of Angelina Jolie...

Pick the correct meaning of the phrasal "turn":

1. Miss Jones turned up late for the staff meeting. She had forgotten to turn on her alarm clock.

a) arrive / put off

b) arrive / switch on

c) went / set

2. Kerry turned off the music in her bedroom and turned on the radio in the living room instead.

a) switch on / switch off

b) switch on / start

c) switch off / switch on

3. John spent six months in Kenya turning an old church into a school, thankfully he turned up for his sister's wedding in May.

a) convert/appear

b) transform/ refuse

c) appear / transform

4. Lisa turned down the job in New York because a new exciting opportunity turned up in Milan.

a) reject / find

b) reject / appear

c) accept / find

A. Fill in the gaps using the verb to turn with the appropriate form.

1. My father always the lights when he is watching TV .

2. The neighbour came to ask me to the music, because it was too loud.

3. He usually forgets to the radio when he leaves the office in the afternoon.

4. He is a bit deaf, so he has to the volume of his TV set to listen to the news.

5. Many people the President, after reading his interview in a magazine.

6. We can't find anything interesting in this website, so let's

7. At Madonna's concert, they everyone who seemed to be drunk.

8. I applied for a job as a DJ at the local radio, but they me

9. After I read the news about my factory's eminent closure, I your website for help.

10. He usually the radio when he's studying.

11. He offered his help to do some research about oil prices in the past year, but it was by the editor.

12. The demonstrators the police, because the officers started beating up some of them.

13. When he finished reading the newspaper, he the heating and he went to bed.