

1	Evidence of artistic works found in Angkor Wat	Hidden have been in the central tower.
2	A description of challenges during the construction of Angkor Wat.	 Angkor Wat was an enormous undertaking that involved, careful artistic work and lots of
3	A statement on the role of the central tower	This tower "was at once the center of the nation and the actual center where secular and power joined forces,"
4	The function of some items found under the central tower	two pieces of crystal and two gold leaves – spiritually a temple, much as a battery will power
5	A question on further uses of Angkor Wat.	it would give the temple a funerary
6	At first , the Angkor Wat was not built as a place to worship Buddha .	 built as a Hindu temple dedicated to the god Vishnu.
10	Besides stabilizing the temple's foundation, the moat also helped to control the level of groundwater	This moat would have helped the temple's foundation, groundwater from rising too high or falling too low
11	The eight towers next to the western gateway are thought to have been used as Shrines before Angkor Wat was completed	These towers may be the remains of shrines that were in before Angkor Wat was fully
12	In order to help the workers making the moat, laterite was used	thousands of people working; To them, a tough material called laterite was used .
13	Scientists still doubt whether the Suryavarman II's ashes were buried in the temple.	Researchers still whether the ashes of Suryavarman II were in the monument
14	What job did Lao-tzu use to work as ?	He eventually took a position as head librarian of the Imperial Archives
15	What did Lao-tzu note down before leaving the city?	As he through the city gates for the final time, the gatekeeper asked Lao-tzu to down his parting thoughts.
16	What did Confucius decide to separate himself from in order to devote more on teaching ?	Confucius politics to teach a small group of students
17	What should human behavior be accompanied by in all circumstances , according to Confucius?	According to Confucius , each person should with virtue in all matters
18	By Confucius's ceremonial belief, what usually appears in a funeral to represent for the dead person's soul?	a willow branch is always carried behind the body of the the soul of that person

19	The meaning of the Tao says how ultimate reality is like.	the Tao has many different meanings. It is the name that ultimate reality
20	The universe is driven by certain powers.	the powers that the universe
21	Everything on Earth is a single unit although their appearance can be different.	everything is all appearances
23	Human behavior are often in accordance with their current financial status .	It is as hard to be without complaining as to be without becoming arrogant
24	Human's good qualities can be described .	Man's virtue is called "Jen." "Jen" is unable to be
27	An experiment on animals to demonstrate that sunlight can be seen as a preventative measure	exposing mice to doses equivalent can them from developing a form of MS
28	A possible reason explaining why people in certain regions are more susceptible to heart-related conditions than others	the reason why conditions are more at higher latitudes
29	Two factors leading to the deficiency in a vital element for the human body.	There is also a trend towards ever higher sun protection factors ; Combined with the fact that most Westerners spend a lot of time indoors , many people are not storing vitamin D
30	A particular disease among children that is a consequence of the infrequent exposure to sunlight	a deficiency of sunlight is associated with rickets , a condition that affects bone development during
31	A denial of the healing function of a specific vitamin.	it is vitamin D will be a for our many modern health challenges
37	In the second decade of the last century, people with a suntan were generally believed to be healthier and stronger .	By the late- 1920s , a suntan had become an emblem of and status
38	Sunlight has several undesirable effects, one of which is causing tumors to develop beneath skin layers as a consequence of being exposed to UV light frequently	 irradiation with UV light and observed that tumors developed their skin
39	overprotection from it can make people's muscles, bones and tissues more vulnerable to illnesses	The fear is that their bones, muscles and possibly other tissues are as a result
40	people with less time spent under the sun will likely have a shorter life expectancy than those who do not avoid sunlight.	 life expectancy among sun avoiders was mostly due to a greater risk