The illustration shows three recycling bins on the left and four items to be recycled on the right. The bins are grey with colored labels: the top one has a green circle with a white recycling symbol and a white square; the middle one has a yellow circle with a white recycling symbol and a white square; the bottom one has a blue circle with a white recycling symbol and a white square. To the right, there are four items: a laptop in a yellow circle, a stack of papers in a yellow circle, three batteries (blue, green, and red) in a yellow circle, and a white plastic bottle in a yellow circle.
