GE7 UNIT 1 MAKING CONNECTIONS 4

1. Read and write the definition for each word using APOSTROPHES ('s and s'). There is one example.

e.g.: nephew: Your brother's or sister's son

Cousin: _____

Niece: _____

Maternal grandparents: _____

Paternal grandparents: _____

Great-grandparents: _____

Sister-in-law: _____

Brothers-in-law: _____

Grandson: _____

Granddaughter: _____

2. Read and complete the sentences using the conjunctions in the brackets. There is one example:

E.g.: Amira is wearing a T-shirt, _____(although)

=> Amira is wearing a T-shirt, although it is freezing outside.

_____, I've recently put on a lot of weight. (although)

My brother-in-law failed his driving test, _____. (even though)

In most countries, people shake their head to say No. _____

(however)

_____, we had a picnic in the mountains yesterday. (Despite)

Lucas saves every penny he earns in his piggy bank, _____

(whereas)

Helen managed to come to your birthday party _____

(in spite of)

We were out of milk; _____(however)

_____, his brother is very bad at it. (while)

LIVEWORKSHEETS

3. Read and write the answers to the questions about gift giving. Use the phrases suggested below to help you write your answers.

Give an opinion	Make suggestions	Give reasons	Give examples	Add information
• I think it's always a good idea to..... • ..... are good things to take for most occasions.	• You can also..... • You should never..... • You should wrap your presents in....	• That's because... • Because....	• You may want to give special presents such as....	• There's also.... • You can also....

What should you take when you visit your friends and family?

_____

Should you be careful when giving flowers? Why?

_____

How should you wrap your gifts?

_____

When is money a suitable present?

_____

Is there anything you should remember when giving money?

_____

What do you give to close friends and family?

_____

When do you open your gifts?

_____

LIVEWORKSHEETS